I agree with the Secy. The expenditure however has already been incurred by the Head of a Deptt. & it seems awkward that Govt. should tell him that he should pay it from his own pocket, more especially since he relies upon usage in support of his action — hereto the addition I have suggested in the draft, save — how may be given this time

Lion

H J BHABHA Esq MA,
Inspector General of Education in Mysore

To

B K Venkatavaradiengar Esq,
Secretary to the Govt of H H,
the Maharaja of Mysore,
General Revenue Depts,
Bangalore

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that I purchased from the annual Contingent Allowance of Rs 300 sanctioned for my office the following articles for official use

(1)	6 Jars of Stephens Blue black Ink	Rs 9-0-0
(2)	3 Travelling Ink bottles	" 3-4-0
(3)	1 Moores Fountain Pen	" 9-8-0
	Ink for Do	1-4-0
(4)	8 Packets of Southern Cross Note Paper	6-0-0
(5)	800 Envelopes to match	" 8-0-0
	Total	Rs 37-0-0

2 The purchase of these articles in the market is objected to by the Comptroller in his audit objection Slips Nos 134 and 141 dated the 30th January and 1st February

1905, in connection with the detailed contingent bills of this office for the months of June and November 1904 in which the articles objected to are mentioned, on the score that the purchase of these articles is contrary to Rule 3 of the Stationery Rules issued under the sanction of Govt Order No G 6011-60 dated the 27th May 1904

3. I beg to point out with reference to the objection raised by the Comptroller that Stephensons ink which was required for my use alone is not supplied by the Stationery Depôt, nor are Travelling ink bottles, Moore's Fountain Pen and fountain pen ink supplied. The note paper called Southern Cross note Paper and Envelopes to match them were bought as they are of medium thickness, the kinds supplied from the Stationery Depôt being either too thick or too thin

Similar purchases were made for several years past but they were not objected to 4 Under the above circumstances I request that Government may be pleased to sanction the purchase of the articles mentioned.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
H Bradda
Inspector General
